For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and convinced that you can buy dry doctors pronounced it a local disease, and goods, boots and shoes, cheaper of us prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. Wheat as a Substitute For Corn. A great deal of wheat was fed to cattle and hoge last year, but as such a use of wheat was regarded as exceptionally little or no pains were taken to note comparative results. As a rule, however, the use of wheat was deemed satisfactory at last year's prices. The Kansas State Agricultural Depretment has results as to foot an official invastice. The Kansas State Agricultural Depretment has recently set on foot an official investigation on the subject of wheat feeding. It is proposed to show the quantity of wheat fed to farm animals in Kansas last year and its pro, ortion of the entire crop, the number of pounds of live pork returned per bushel of wheat consumed, its valud as compared with corn, and the cost per bushel of raising wheat and putting it into the bin when the field is ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty five, thirty and thirty-five bushels per acre respectively. This information will be a matter of general interest. If it can be established that pork and beef can be put upon the market as cheaply from wheat fed as from corn fed stock, and that there will be no resulting stock, and that there will be no resulting deteriorianon in quality, the fact may have important bearing in determining future erop distribution and prices.

A FRIEND. ife's journey. Death of Jerome B. Foster. In Napoleon, O., on Saturday, Sept. 15th, 1894, at 11:15 a.m., Jerome B. Foster departed this life, aged 50 years, 10 months and 13 days. Mr. Foster had long been a sufferer from spinal trouble and of late years was unable to get around except in an invalid chair. Funeral services were held Monday, from the late residence of the deceased on Perry street, at 10 clock a. m., Rev Donahey officiating. Mr. Foster was born at Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 28, 1844. His younger days were spent in Hillsdale, Mich., from which place he removed to Napoleon in 1872, where for nearly 20 years he was engaged in the livery business. He was united in marriage to Mrs. Sarah E. Keelen, June 11, 1881. A loving wife, an aged mother, three sisters and one brother are left to mourn their loss. Reunion of the Hudson Family.

The 10th reunion of the Hudson family was held Saturday, Sept. 15th, at the home of Ralph Redfield in Liberty township, fifty members being present. As we looked into the friendy faces of those who were bound to us by the conjugal tie, our heart was made sad to see the furrows old Father Time had plowed on the cheeks that were once so fresh and rosy. This was the first time we have been permitted to meet our dear ones and were over-joyed to press so many friendly hands and exchange greet-ings. But we missed some whose faces we will see no more and some whose business, and distance of geographical miles hindered their coming. The vacant chairs were many and the city of the dead has given place to so many of our number, who have gone never to return, that it forcibly impresses our mind that "death is no respector of per-sons." Yet while so many of the pioneers are stepping out we noticed many younger ones stepping upon the stage of action to take their place; coming with better advantages and better prepared to do battle in the duties that will offer themselves to the zealous hand of honest toil. We are no mean looking fellows, as the photograh we had taken of our group will prove. "Ralph," as we all call him, and Jennie, his estimable wife, admirably entertained us, one and all. They have built a bran new brick house this summer and have just moved into it, and well may they feel proud of it, for it shows that the Hudsons with all Henry county peo-ple are enterprising fellows. But the parting came and with "good bys" we took our leave of each other probably to never meet again until the last trumpet shall sound. May the
